A. L. Snowden,

Supr. U. S. Mint,

Dear Sir

Excuse

the liberty I take in asking you the following questions.

First. Were there any one (1) cent pieces coined in 1855?

Second. What is the value of the small one (1) cent piece of 1856?

Third. Where can a reliable catalogue of coins with their values be obtained and at what price?

Fourth. Is there a published list of the coinage of U. S. Mints alone?

If so, where can it be obtained?

A speedy answer to the foregoing questions will greatly oblige

Very Respectfully
Yours

R. M. Carothers.

P.S. Accept regards of my father, a school mate of yours at Cannonsburg.
